

Psychology

Researching Psychology

Books

<http://www.sctechsystem.com/tctc/lynx>

From the Library Lynx web page, click the Books button.
Choose the online catalog.

Reference Books

Use these reference books for articles that you can photocopy.

Encyclopedia of Psychology (Ref BF 31 .E52)

Psychology Basics (Ref BF 31 .P765)

The Penguin Dictionary of Psychology (Ref BF 31 .R43)

The Encyclopedia of Psychiatry, Psychology, and Psychoanalysis (Ref RC 437 .E49)

The Illustrated Encyclopedia of Body-Mind Disciplines (Ref R 733 .I49)

Clinical Handbook of Psychological Disorders (Ref RC 489 .B4 C584)

The Encyclopedia of Schizophrenia (Ref RC 514 .N63)

The Encyclopedia of Mental Health (Ref RC 437 .K34)

The Encyclopedia of Depression (Ref RC 537 .R643)

The Encyclopedia of Sleep and Sleep Disorders (Ref RC 547 .T48)

The Encyclopedia of Obesity and Eating Disorders (Ref RC 552 .E18 C37)

Regular Books

Conduct a subject search in the online catalog for books you can check out by searching by many terms.

Example subject search:

Psychology.

Search also under: Adolescent psychology.

Search also under: Emotions.

Search also under: Mental health.

Search also under: Stress (Psychology)

Psychology -- History.

Eating disorders.

Freud, Sigmund, 1856-1939.

Then look down the list for a style (Adolescent psychology), a time period (Psychology, History), an issue (Eating Disorders) or a Psychologist's name-last name first (Freud, Sigmund, 1856-1939).

Articles

From the Library Lynx web page, click the Articles button. Choose the database you wish to search.

<http://www.sctechsystem.com/tctc/lynx>

InfoTrac

Expanded Academic & Health Reference Center

Includes a wide range of scholarly and academic journals. Items retrieved may include news stories, book reviews, interviews, as well as some critical essays.

- ✧ Click on "Proceed" at the welcome screen.
- ✧ Select Expanded Academic (the third one on the list) by clicking on it.
- ✧ Type your subject in the search entry box.
- ✧ Click on "Search."
- ✧ Scroll through the Subject Guide to find your subject, then click on "View" to look at a list of articles.
- ✧ Scroll through the results and select the articles you wish to view by clicking on "text" (note that some items do not contain full-text).

Use the print icon on your Web browser to print each article as you view it.

PsycFirst

Indexes journal articles, books, dissertations and reports on psychology and related fields. Coverage includes the current year and the preceding 3 years. Citations and abstracts only.

Web Sites

Try these directories to find additional information about your subject on the World Wide Web. You can connect to them through Library Lynx. Choose Websites, then Websites just for Psychology.

Psychology.net

<http://www.psychology.net/>

Allyn and Bacon - Psychology)

<http://www.abacon.com/psychology>

The Encyclopedia of Psychology

<http://www.psychology.org> American Psycho

Psych-Central: Psychology Online Resource Central

<http://www.psych-central.com/>

logical Association

<http://www.apa.org>

PsychREF: Resources in Psychology on the Internet

<http://maple.lemoyne.edu/~hevern/psychreftoc-text.html>

APA Student Information

<http://www.apa.org/students/>

General Web Search

To conduct a general web search for psychology information, select Yahoo! from the web station's Library Menu. Once in Yahoo! select the category Health, then select the sub-category Mental Health. Select an appropriate link from the list, then follow the sub-categories and/or links to web sites related to your topic.

